

Take in the party to-night.

For a nice, pleasant bath, hot or cold go to Peckner's on Virginia street.

There is a fine hound in the pound. Every would like some one to claim him.

It was warm and pleasant last evening, and the prospect was good for some nice weather.

Lisle Jamison was very much better last evening. He will be at his post again in a few days.

The funeral of Jacob Graff was very largely attended. He was buried by the Odd Fellows of Reno.

Mrs. Berry is slowly improving, she is, however, very weak, so much so that she has to be assisted in every movement.

There was no quorum present at the Agricultural meeting yesterday. The meeting will be held next Saturday at the Justice Court room.

Chase & Thyes' saloon was crowded last night. You can always find anyone you are looking for there. They keep the finest liquors and cigars in town.

Constable Avery and Dr. Fred Hutchins have been appointed inspectors for the sheet and pillow slip ball to-night. No disreputable characters will be allowed admittance. Admission to the gallery, 50 cents; children under ten years old 25 cents.

The Virginia Chronicle of yesterday publishes the statements of the various railroads in this State. It shows that Wills, Sharon & Co.'s net earnings for the past year amounted to $810,058 68. These roads are wholly within this State. We will have something to say about this business to-morrow.

The Bodie Free Press says: "The Board of Supervisors have appointed Col. T. W. W. Davies as special counsel for Mono county at a salary of $200 per month, John A. McQuaid's term of office having expired. Colonel Davies is well known as an intelligent and faithful attorney, and he will be diligent in attending to the county's affairs. His family will soon arrive in Bridgeport."

Notice.

There will be a meeting at the freight house to-night for the purpose of organizing the new hose company. Any one desiring to join the above will endeavor to be present.

Lumbering Accident.

On Wednesday evening Joseph Robinson, working at Cameron's mill, above Genoa, was seriously injured about the bowels and kidneys by a heavy piece of timber falling upon him. He was taken to Carson City for medical treatment, and it is thought he is now out of danger.

Married.

Last evening James O'Neil was married to Miss Kittie Crane. The ceremony took place at the Catholic Church, Rev. Father Nugent officiating. After the ceremony the wedding party adjourned to the Arcade Restaurant, where the wedding supper was served. The Journal wishes the young couple much joy.

Card of Thanks.

I hereby return the thanks of myself and the family of Jacob Graff, deceased, to the fraternity of Odd Fellows and sympathizing friends for their assistance and kind attention during our late affliction, and hope that God, in his all-wise providence, may spare them the pain of a similar affliction.

Mrs. Magdalena Graff.

The Bald Heads.

The Grass Valley Union says: The bald, headed party at Nevada City, on Wednesday, was a fair success as to numbers, and a decided one in the way of fun, to which Hon. Niles Searls, the clear-headed floor manager, largely contributed by an humorous address on hairless heads, their causes and effects. John Brodie took the prize as the bald head of the bald heads, which consisted of a case of hairpins, a miniature fan, and an infant's hair brush and comb.

His Condition.

Captain J. E. Coulter, who was so severely scalded at the Utah works on Monday last by the bursting of a steam pipe, is doing very well considering the severe nature of his burns. He was scalded on the forehead, on the left side of the head and neck and on the upper part of the chest, where his flesh is partly cooked. Unless erysipelas sets in it is thought he will come out all right in due time. He had a very hot and close call.

CARSON CORRESPONDENCE.

Dull Times—Dark Streets—Heavy Taxes—Colored Calamity—Complimentary Concert—Kinkad and Adams—Earth and Heaven.

CARSON CITY, Feb. 20, 1882.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—With the opening of Spring many families will leave Carson City for other fields of labor. The

DULL TIMES

Seems to be getting worse and many will have to go away to find employment. Wood River will capture a few and lower California others. I have been hoping to hear good news from the Voltaire mine, but so far nothing very encouraging has been announced. Last week the mill was shut down, but I understand the mine is still being worked. The benefit of a rich mine would be incalculable. The dry-rot which pervades everything would be dispelled, speculators and prospectors take heart and a high old time of prosperity set in. Our town, as you know, is like "linked sweetness, long drawn out."

CARSON STREET

Is long and straight and has all of the business houses on it. If you get a block either side of it you are in the suburbs. This street serves another purpose. West of that street live the upper-tendom, while to the East of it argues one a plebeian. It makes a power of difference in this case on which side your bread is buttered. The

STREET LAMPS

Are supposed to shine on the just and the unjust, but so far there is not a case on record where a solitary benighted individual has been able to locate a lamp-post except for steadying purposes. The City Dads say they cannot afford to put in gas at $7 per thousand, and continue to use oil as a matter of economy. As a still further saving they might stop lighting them altogether and none would be the wiser. The Capital city is decidedly backward in the way of street lamps and sidewalks, yet we pay taxes enough to ensure the best of everything. Last year the rate of State, county and town tax aggregated $3.85. One of our greatest expenses, however, is the V. & T. R. R. bonds. The county now owes $77,000 to this road and it is paying interest at the rate of 7 per cent. on them. At the present depreciated state of property, it seems hard to have to pay just as high taxes as in flush times. But there is no help for it. These debts were made in good faith and must be met, and the running expenses must be kept up, so the taxes are kept at the highest notch. Lander is the only county in the State with a higher rate of taxation—$3.90.

CLEM BERRY.

The African calamity, is at large again. Clem is about as expensive a luxury as Carson can well afford. He is quarrelsome, abusive and drunken and is before the Judge every few days. He was liberated last week from a two months imprisonment, only to be found in a row the next day and again before the law. It would be a public benefactor that would take him into a far off land and lose him. He has already cost the county much more than his carcass is worth as a fertilizer, and he is certainly of no other use.

THE PARKINSON CONCERT

Was a magnificent success. The capacious theater was filled to overflowing. I have never attended a more successful entertainment. Everything was good. To particularize would be but to botch and so I forbear. Miss Nellie, the beneficiary, will have about $300 as the result of it. I hear some talk of it being repeated in Reno. Should this be the case don't fail to attend, for you will hear something that is seldom equalled and rarely excelled by professionals. Our singers and musicians just "threw themselves."

OUR BIG GOVERNOR

still lingers in the East, but he will be heard inside of the Constitutional limit of 90 days. Have not seen his Private Secretary, Capt. Lyon lately. He is Supt. of a Candelaria Mine, and is out there much of his time during the absence of his chief. In the mean time his little excellency, Gov. Adams is dispensing Democratic doctrine at every hand and doing all he can to strengthen his chances for the Gubernatorial nomination next Fall. At least so everybody says, and what "everybody says" must be so.

EARTH AND HEAVEN

It seems to me it is colder here than it is in Reno. I know the snow lies longer on the ground, and the nights are the coldest I ever saw in the State. The thermometer has been down below zero many times this winter. Some time ago a petition was circulated asking Senator Jones to use his best influence to get a telescope for the use of the Carson Observatory. The last Legislature memorialized Congress to that effect, but nothing came of it, and so far that last petition seems to have met a similar fate. That instrument would be a valuable addition to the fine scientific apparatus Charles W. Friend, the State Meteorologist, has in his laboratory.

A man With Grit.

Ross Jones had a frightful drive with his spirited buggy team on Sunday. After the services were over at the funeral of Jacob Graff and the carriages were returning from the cemetery, Mr. Jones' team became nervous and he turned into the road that leads down to Second street. At Briggs' lumber yard the team broke into a run and one of the traces became unhooked. This frightened them more and it was impossible to check them. Mr. Jones held on with almost a giant's strength and guided the team over the bridges at Briggs' yard and on Second street, then pulled them around on West which he kept till he got to Fourth then held them on the Glendale road until they passed Dave Russells, where he brought them to a stop. It was a terrible ride of about four miles and showed wonderful coolness on the part of Jones for all that kept the pole from falling and having a serious accident was his presence of mind in holding the buggy right up to the team by the lines. As it turned out no damage was done.

The Party To-Night.

Everything has been arranged to make this one of the pleasantest parties of the season. The ladies will furnish masks, sheets and pillow-slips to any one who desires them at a very low rental. They will be at the Reform Club Hall to-day and will have the costumes there. The grand March will be called promptly at 9 o'clock and the floor director, A. A. Evans, would like all to be on hand at that time. Following is the programme for the sheet and pillow-slip ball to-night:

Grand March, 9 o'clock sharp.	Waltz Lancers

A Mason Valley Valentine.

A rancher in from Mason Valley on Tuesday saw the valentine excitement around the postoffice and determined to follow the fashion and send his own dearest a token. No cheap two bit arrangement would suit him, and the high toned ornamental structures in handkerchief boxes were too flimsy to meet the taste of the sturdy ploughman. He, however, found a gaudy painted window curtain which contained a picture of two young people sitting near a duck pond. This was put up and mailed for him, and his sweet heart has doubtless by this time guessed who thought enough of her to send her an oil painting on Valentine day. So says the Lyon County Times.

Personal.

F. B. Mercer, formerly of the Suto Independent, is now in the Government printing office at Washington.

R. A. Marr, of the United States Geological Survey recently stationed at Carson, has gone to Washington to stand an examination for promotion.

Senator Jones, who has been very ill at Washington from the effects of vaccination, is again in the enjoyment of his usual excellent health.

Michael Young, of Virginia City, has received a dispatch from his brother Samuel, at Tombstone, stating that there is no truth in the reported killing of their brother, ex-Mayor J. S. Young, at Lake Valley, Mexico, one day last week.

Teachers' Institute.

The next meeting of the Teachers' Institute of Storey county will be held at the fourth ward school-house Friday evening, March 10. The committee on music consists of Maggie Long, Mary E. Hanley and Julia Michelson. The exercises will include a grammar class, conducted by Miss N. Augusta Everett, to be followed by a discussion by the grammar teachers of Storey county, and work in the decimals, conducted by Miss M. F. Hawley, the discussion to be by the institute. The roll will be called in each case.

A Large Beef.

The Silver State says George Burk has one of the largest and fattest beeves hung up at his market that ever graced a shambles in Winnemucca. It weighed alive 2,338 pounds and dressed 1,220. It is prime beef, and the butchers say if George Carrel, who raised it, had given it about a half ton more of barley it would be as good beef as was ever slaughtered.

A Steam Yacht for Tahoe.

The Carson Appeal says: "It is reported that Colonel Fred. Crocker, son of Charles Crocker, is having a magnificent steam yacht built in San Francisco, which he will launch at Lake Tahoe early in the Spring. If the report is true the lake will likely be visited by many of San Francisco's upper crust next Summer."

Senator Fair's new building in San Francisco is rapidly approaching completion.

Luning.

The new town of Luning is situated on the Carson and Colorado Railroad, about twenty-five miles southeast of Hawthorne. The Lyon County Times thus speaks of the place and its prospects, "Luning is the center from which will radiate the trade and travel of four new and rich mining districts—Gillis, Garfield, Santa Fe and Silver Star. These districts are now attracting much attention owing to the many and valuable deposits of mineral discovered within their boundaries. The mineral belts are extensive in area, and the ledges are generally rich. No other section in Nevada has shown itself to be so essentially the country for the poor prospector as that around Luning, and even now, while the weather is cold and traveling is difficult, a large number are going into the hills. Silver, copper and lead ores are there in large quantities and near the surface, where a previous outlay of capital is not required for their extraction. Luning is the point from which these districts are most accessible, and from which miners can most readily obtain supplies."

A Furnace for Mason Valley.

Henry Allen, of Eureka, is making to order a furnace for the Ludwig copper mine, of Mason Valley. The stone found near Eureka is said to be superior to all other kinds used in the construction of furnaces, and better withstands the heat.

Senator Rollins yesterday reported favorably as to the amended bill for a public building in Carson City, Nevada.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care. Its effects are as wonderful and satisfactory as ever. It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color. It removes all eruptions, itching and dandruff, and the scalp by its use becomes white and clean. By its tonic properties it restores the capillary glands to their normal vigor, preventing baldness, and making the hair grow thick and strong. As a dressing nothing has been found so effective or desirable. Dr. A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts, says of it: "I consider it the best preparation for its intended purposes."
